

WYOMING SPEECH-LANGUAGE HEARING ASSOCIATION
ADVERTISING POLICY

1. Any organization advertising a continuing education activity will be allowed to have information put on the web site or newsletter free of charge.
2. For-profit businesses will be charged for advertising. This includes companies that hire traveling speech-language pathologists and audiologists.
3. Companies with job openings directly post positions to the “Career Center” pages of our website.
4. WSHA will not sell our members’ addresses to businesses seeking speech-language pathologists or audiologists for hire, or other companies who want to advertise continuing education or their products. These companies will be encouraged to use our web site and newsletter as described in 1-3 above.
